

73 Questions were completed across KS1.

85% of parents felt they were able to support their children with their home learning.

If No, state reason:

Work commitments

No or Little English Language

What do you think are the most important reasons for doing home learning?

71% It helps to develop independent working

59% Parents are informed about school work

55% It is good practice for a primary school

52% It reinforces work begun in school.

51% It prepares children for the future.

40% It raises children's attainment.

Other reason:

Parent and child quality time.

Which style of home learning has your child enjoyed doing recently? (Tick all that apply)

58% Artwork

55% Model making

53% Mathematics Investigation

44% Using the Computer

38% Writing

33% Project work

30% Topic work

27% Research

25% Problem Solving

15% Science

9% Preparing a talk

Do you think the amount of home learning given by the school each week is...

87% About right

8% Not enough

5% Too Much

What do you think of the new CLOOS Guidance page? (Tick all that apply)

100% The guidance is clear to follow

70% It provides lots of ideas of ways to approach each task

44% The teacher and parent's comments boxes are useful

26% The websites suggested are useful

Other Comments:

I can use Google to support with homework

My Child enjoys completing the CLOOS Home Learning

67% Yes

32% Sometimes

1% No

If No, state reason:

My child doesn't find it interesting.

What resources do you have at home to assist your child in learning at home? (Tick all that apply)

80% An adult with time to help.

77% Internet access

60% A quiet place to work.

34% Dictionary

12% Encyclopedia

Parent Comments

I'm glad we get 2 weekends to do homework as we have family time too.

Sometimes day to day life gets in the way but it is still something we enjoy doing together.

I like the comments from the teacher as you are updated about your child's work.

My child looks forward to personalized feedback from their teacher.